

June 10, 2008

The Life of Wayne Quiggle, Jr.

- Wayne Quiggle, Jr., 65, of Groton died Sunday, June 08, 2008 at his residence in Groton. At his request, his body was cremated and no services will be held.
- Wayne P. Quiggle, Jr. was born on January 23, 1943 to Wayne and Medora (Eisenbrey) Quiggle at the family farm near Groton. He attended school in Groton, graduating in 1961. Wayne enlisted in the National Guard and served for several years. He united in marriage with Jacqueline Honey on April 20, 1979 in Webster. The couple made their home near Groton, where Wayne farmed for many years.
- Wayne enjoyed fishing and hunting and had been a member of the Sportsman's Club.
- Grateful for having shared in his life is his wife, Jacqueline of Groton, three children; Ryan Quiggle of Groton, Kenya Quiggle of Missoula, Montana, Sierra (William) Potter of Missoula, Montana, two step-daughters; Kym Adler of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Corinna (Tom) Holler of Sheraton, Wyoming, his mother, Medora Quiggle of Groton, one brother, Clint Quiggle of Alaska, three grandchildren; Preston Potter, Ashley & Desmond Quiggle, and three step-grandchildren; Miles Adler, Kayla & Adam Holler.
- Wayne was preceded in death by his grandparents and his father.
- Arrangements by Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton.